35 5.1 Student Council – Tyler Cullen: The Student Council will be holding a bake sale on August 26 at Mack’s Apples. All are welcome and any donations will be put towards future Student Council events. The annual spring convention was recently held at the State House in Concord. State elections were held and it was described as a “lovely event” by those in attendance. They said that meeting friends from years past was a good experience. The Londonderry Student Council will be 40 hosting the fall central district meeting on October 18 at LHS. Freshman orientation is August 28. We are excited to meet the rising freshman class and introduce them to the school. A homecoming dance for next year is now in the works. Planning is still in the incipient stage, but the final product is sure to be quite the event.

45 5.2 Teacher Liaison – Mary Wing Soares: From Moose Hill: The LHS seniors visited Moose Hill today to see their kindergarten teachers and enjoy milk and cookies. It was so great to have them visit with us! Best of luck to the seniors in the future! The kindergarten students are looking forward to their end of the year celebrations this week. The North Wing will celebrate on 6/8 and the East Wing will celebrate on 6/9. The students have been practicing their songs and the music has filled out hallways. They are working very hard to be ready for their big performance!! LMS: yesterday the 8th grade voted on who they will have represent them at Londonderry High School as their class officers. The election winners were announced today – they are Maddie Walden as President, Grace Harpster as Vice President, Ryan Griffin as Treasurer, Emily Detelis as Secretary, and C. Sullivan as class historian. The Typhoon Team will be holding their annual Ancient Egypt Museum in the afternoon on move up day. It will be cool for all the incoming 7th grade learners to see what the rising 8th graders have created. The board, Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent are all invited and welcome to come see the work. Additionally, the Tsunami Team will be holding their annual Portfolio Hour on Thursday 6/22 from 1-2pm in the sixth-grade wing. All are welcome to see the hard work the Tsunami students have done throughout the course of their sixth-grade year. 8th grade teachers are looking forward to the private concert that our learners will put on during their classes A and I period on Friday. This is done after the holiday and spring concerts to thank their teachers for their understanding when the learners are taken for rehearsals. It is wonderful to hear what they’ve accomplished. Clubs are winding up with final meetings over this week and next. Boys Respect took their final field trip today to Park Place Bowling. The boys cheered each other on, and encouraged their mates as gutter ball after gutter ball were thrown down the lane. They are looking forward to next year’s adventures. LHS: The following students were recognized with certificates for Honorable Mention for the Grand Concours, the National French Examination: Advanced Placement level: Alexa Mayo and Alena Pursel French 4 level: Nicole Cournoyer, Carolyn Hill, and Meghan McCudden

5.3 School Board Liaison Reports: Mrs. Reilly talked about the Adult Ed graduation and mentioned there were 17 graduates.

6. Deliberations

6.1 To see what action(s) the Board will take regarding the update on Adult Ed Grant: Amity Small, Assistant Principal and Director of Alternative Education discusses. There have been over 600 graduates through the program. The State took an 8% decrease. So Mrs. Small is returning to resubmit her proposal with an $11,000 cut. The major hit came with the online platform called ODYSSEYWARE and it has been replaced with PLATO. They will phase out in one year the ODYSSEYWARE and everything else is basically the same. Mrs. Reilly asked what the difference is. Mrs. Small said they used PLATO before and felt they were outgrowing it, but they have updated the platform since then and she felt it can deliver a comparable service. She said the curriculum matched up and the information and content will be the same. The $800,000 the State was given to disperse had an 8% cut. Mr. Greenberg explained that these are Federal dollars that come to us and part of the issue was the budget that was presented by the USDOE to Congress was ‘dead on arrival’. Projecting two years down the road will be difficult not knowing where the budget will end up and what will happen. There may be an adjustment up or down but at this point it is volatile because of the unknown. The money may be restored at the next level, but it’s a wait and see. This is direct Federal money and not State money. Mrs. Hendricks said she is very proud of the Adult Ed program so she would feel uncomfortable if this program was compromised in any way and wanted to make sure we are moving forward with our rigorous program. Mrs. Small said the teachers are the backbone and nothing will be compromised with this online change. Mr. Young reminded everyone that they ran the program with no assistance for a number of years and we paid for it on our own. Mr. Greenberg believed we did it that way for four years. Mr. Greenberg gave kudos to Mrs. Small for her work on the program along with the faculty and School Board.
